| Issue                  | Figure  | Assumptions                         |
|------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------|
| Developable area       | 0.13 ha | Based on whole site.                |
| Local area density     | 30dph   | Low                                 |
| Development density    | 15dph   | Density of developable area.        |
| Capacity for dwellings | 2       | Based on initial visual assessment. |

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Concluding comments | Although unallocated, the site does form an attractive area of open space that provides amenity value. There is potential for limited residential development on the site if the development was sensitively designed to fit in with the local character. The site has been assessed as unable to accommodate 5 or more dwellings. As such it is unsuitable for inclusion in the SHLAA. |
