* growing, we spent many a happy time there, of course since then it has been updated and we have a tree that my mum had planted for my dad after he passed away in 1989, every year it blossoms beautifully and is well established now and my mum had a brass plaque made, that I had remade after we lost her and I clean and polish this. We as a family have seen lots of young people, families who sit under it and have photos taken in front of it. Councillor Hook told me that the fountain may be looked at, fair comment, I've heard as have lots of others, that there's a possibility of a child play area being put in Gardens. Please no the gardens are a peaceful respite for us all, there is a lovely childrens park in Walpole Park, only five minutes away from ferry.

Any improvements to Gosport can only be good, just not Ferry Gardens.

Kind Regards
