There is NOTHING

WROUGHT with Gosport Town Centre/Waterfront, that a good repair, clean, and tidy up would remedy.

The bus station is excellent now, it is v. easy & convenient for the ferry, not an eye-sore like many (eg. Fareham) and well built. Gosport does NOT need designer stuff like Pompey - bus stations don't usually draw tourists for their architecture style. Just convenience, & reasonable comfort.

The gardens are fine & pleasant to walk, sit, views etc. Not long since was improved with new sea wall, & the ~~concrete~~^{mer} tiles in the promenade, which, we think, is an original idea, no other town quite like our own - Dootyard, Pompey (old & new) etc. And very few have such an excellent Harbour entrance.

So it should be left alone - and NO MORE blocks of FLATS on sea front. In fact, NO more building in Gosport or its peninsula. We can't get in/out now by road. Shall soon need helicopters to escape the area.

Town Centre - might be improved with more greenery & seating. MARKET draws people. How about making cheaper fees for market traders?
