My query / problem / opinion is: We have too many empty shops in Gosport as it is, so why would Councillor Hock want to build more? When Mr Hock said, we didn't need a cinema in Gosport because there is one in Fareham and Portsmouth it infuriated me. Surely it should be what the tax payer want, not his

My query / problem / opinion is: There are too many empty shops as it is. The Falkland Gardens were to remember all those loved ones lost in the name of peace and should not be altered. Why not build the houses and flats proposed on the site of the old detention centre in Alverstoke, or is it too close to Councillor Hook and Dineg's beeky cards. It has been said we As for restaurant and cafes we have them coming out of our ears. No more M&Donalds and home too many these people living in squalor and they wonder why! No more the like please!
