Re: Proposed cafe adjacent to Seaward Towers Harbour Tower

I object very strongly to the proposal to site a cafe/restaurant directly in front of Seaward and Harbour Towers.

My objection is to the noise level that will emanate from this development, particularly in the evening.

There will be music and general noise. As happened at the Pebbles Café, (~~which is not~~) before too long a time extension is likely to be permitted allowing extended opening hours and live music.

Is there any guarantee that a liquor licence will not be granted? I doubt it.

Over 300 people live in Seaward and Harbour Towers and they will be adversely affected by the noise.

The Café proposal should be re-sited to an area on the harbour front which is not directly in front of the Towers. No one chose to live directly behind a noisy business and no one should be forced to unnecessarily. Yours Sincerely
